ANKARA, March 25.—Yugoslavia's leap into the arms of the Axis powers was accompanied today by a mutual Russo-Turkish agreement in which the U. S. S. R. encouraged Turkey to defend her territory, including the strategic Dardanelles, against possible German attack.

In a momentous exchange of notes Turkey was advised that she may "count upon complete understanding" and neutrality of the U. S. S. R. if Turkey is forced to fight.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: An International News Service dispatch from London yesterday revealed that Russia, fearing a possible German advance against the Dardanelles, is seeking to improve Anglo-Russian relations.)

Turkey, likewise assured Russia that Moscow could rely on the understanding and neutrality of Turkey if Russia "should find itself in a similar position."

Soviet Aid Promise

Diplomatic quarters in Ankara interpreted the Russian move as a virtual Soviet promise of weapons and war supplies to Turkey in case the Nazis strike at the Dardanelles. In addition, publication of the agreement was hailed as a significant step toward improving Anglo-Russian relations.

Farmers state that the ground is getting into good shape for ploughing. It is said that the frost has not penetrated more than a few inches beneath the surface. The heavy snows forming a heavy blanket on the ground, have doubtless lessened the depth of the frost.

Pappy's Motorcycle club had an outing along the Big Run Sunday afternoon, just below Cascade park lake. To help make things interesting, two of the party, Ivor Johns and Joe Rzeznick, decided to take a swim in one of the "holes" in the run. They said it did not feel as cold under the water as it was standing alongside the creek.

Although weather conditions today were rather a throw-back to wintry scenes, a lot of lawn rollers have been hauled out of storage and are ready for use on lawns about the city, Pa. News notes.

One of the highways in this district that appears to have been badly heaved in spots by the alternate freezing and thawing of the winter is the route from Leesburg to Grove City.

In case you are interested this is already the eighty-fourth day of the year 1941.

LONDON, March 25.—Yugoslavia certainly "must be aware of British intentions to attack German forces wherever they may be."

That was the first grim comment from authoritative British sources today when news reached London that Yugoslavia has aligned itself with the Axis powers.

Implicit in this reaction was a warning that British forces may make Yugoslavia a battle ground should German troops enter Yugoslavian territory.

Army Reinforced

In this connection, the London Daily Express affirmed today that Britain's middle eastern arm has been strongly reinforced in recent weeks with planes, guns and mechanized units.

Events are moving toward a climax in the eastern Mediterranean, the paper said, and within a short time British troops may be facing the German army in Bulgaria's Struma valley.

Meanwhile, authoritative British

The final report of the Y. W. C. A. membership drive will be given on Wednesday morning at 11:30 after the Bible class. The chairman, Mrs. Robert Eckles, is most enthusiastic over the response Y. W. C. A. workers and members are making to the class of the Y. W. C. A. this year. Morale and fellowship through the Young Women's Christian Association are all needed more than ever, and the increase both in numbers and contributions is very encouraging.

The national membership policy of the Y. W. C. A. which has been adopted by the New Castle Association urges, that no woman or girl be required to join the Y. W. C. A. who wants to join a Y club or class or to get a job or any other service. She is invited to become a Y. W. C. A. member because she believes in its purpose and wants to be a part of its fellowship and help with its financing. She does not pay Y. W. C. A. dues if she can not afford it. Last Wednesday the workers decided to spend one more week in collecting pledges and trying to find people who were not at home when called upon before, and to come together for a victory meeting following the Lenten Bible class on Wednesday.

By KINGSBURY SMITH

WASHINGTON, March 25.—Reliable information received by the United States government indicates that King Victor Emanuel and an overwhelming majority of the Italian people favor an immediate peace settlement with Great Britain, it was learned today.

However, Italy now is considered to be so thoroughly controlled by German troops and secret police that authoritative quarters in Washington believe it is impossible for the king to negotiate a peace settlement that would take his people out of war, even if he could dispose of Premier Mussolini. Neither Mussolini, the king nor the Italian people are believed to be masters of their own will any longer. Control of Italy is considered to have passed into the hands of Germany shortly after the collapse of the Italian armies in Libya.

Realizing that it is impossible for the king to negotiate a separate peace with Great Britain, Pope Pius XII is believed to be seeking to bring about a general peace settlement in order to save Italy from destruction.

Informed opinion in Washington doubts whether the Vatican peace move will meet with any immediate success because it is believed Great Britain still is determined to refuse to negotiate a peace settlement with Adolf Hitler or any Nazi-dominated German government.

The cards and leaflets opposing the pact and denouncing the Axis dictators contained many grammatical errors. It appeared obvious that many of the cards had been hurriedly prepared—some of them by non-Yugoslavians.

NEW YORK, March 25.—As World War II moves into its second spring, the main menace to Britain remains the threat to her Atlantic life-line by German long-range bombers, submarines, and surface raiders.

Every effort is being made by

The strain of this counter-blockade is already being felt in Britain, although it still is a long way from threatening to become a decisive factor.

British leaders readily admit that Britain never faced a graver problem, was never in worse shape to meet it. The counter-blockade is universally conceded to be more serious than the night bomber, more urgent than the threat of invasion.

Further, British expert opinion agrees today that upon the success or otherwise of this German sea oftensive depends the secondary threat of whether or not Hitler will invade Britain.

THREAT TO ATLANTIC LIFE-LINE IS GREATEST MENACE TO BRITAIN

Those who have closely analyzed all of Hitler's writings and speeches believe Adolf Hitler will never pay a wrong with a right. Again and again he has cried out that he will give England a taste of the starvation conditions that Germany experienced toward the closing stages of World War I and in the first years of the "peace." The feeling in informed circles in London is that while the present German Atlantic campaign has for its main end the subjugation of Britain by economic means, its secondary purpose is to make 47 million British men, women and children suffer the same pangs of hunger that their opposite numbers in Germany experienced in 1917-1920.

Experienced shipping men in London have estimated that with her present "reserves" of shipping Britain can absorb a loss of a maximum of 75,000 tons of merchant ships weekly without losing the war.

Recent Losses High

Recent losses have been higher than that figure and there is every prospect that they will go even higher as Hitler launches his hordes of submarines into the Atlantic in late March or early April.

Britain is now turning out every destroyer, every corvette, and every sloop that her naval yards are capable of producing under war-time conditions. The rate of production is high despite bombing black-out conditions, and occasional labor union difficulties and shortage of skilled workers.

But she desperately needs more small warcraft from the United States. A senior cabinet minister told the writer, shortly before he left London for New York, that "another 100 American destroyers would be a God-send; fifty would be a blessing."

It is no secret that the first 50 destroyers sent to Britain under the ships-for-bases agreement came into actual service commission very slowly because of fundamental difficulties inherent in overage vessels. If further destroyers, cruisers, sloops or coastal motorboats are sent, America could do no better service for the British view than to see that they cross the Atlantic ready for immediate commissioning under war-time conditions.

Atlantic Is Answer

Members of Britain's war cabinet, from Premier Churchill down, have frankly admitted that Britain requires weapons, ships and airplanes. At the present moment they no doubt would like to alter these earlier statements slightly to emphasize Britain's need for ships—for warships to protect her Atlantic convoys from the sea and air menace and for merchant ships to replace the tremendous tonnage she has been losing by torpedo and bomb attack on the Atlantic highway.

In large part the Atlantic will provide the answer to the riddle of 1941, the so-called "deciding year of the war." It will determine whether Hitler decides to attempt the invasion of Britain; whether Britain can in late 1941 or early 1942 adopt offensive tactics and carry the war onto the continent.

There is not an Englishman today who is not hoping that now the lease-lend bill has been passed, the United States will find a way to keep the Atlantic highway open no matter how viciously the Germans wage their ocean campaign. And the vast majority of Englishmen are confident that with the help of the U. S. A. there is no question that England will survive the Atlantic threat and go on to win the war.

AXIS AGREEMENT SIGNED AT VIENNA WITH CEREMONY

Vienna this morning, received the Yugoslavian diplomats this afternoon.

Cvetovic and Cincar-Marcovic signed the pact at Vienna's famous Belvedere palace in the presence of German Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop, Italian Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano, Japanese Ambassador Oshima and the ministers of Slovakia, Hungary, Rumania and Bulgaria.

German quarters commented that by this event Hitler had placed Europe's historically bloodiest corner under his wing without firing a shot.

"Master Stroke"

This "master stroke," they said, was begun last November when Hungary joined the axis-Japanese alliance, followed by Rumania, Slovakia and Bulgaria.

They declared this parade of nations into the alliance, climaxed by today's developments, places the fuhrer in a strategically "matchless" position to concentrate Germany's military striking power and move swiftly to the east and west with his back and flank now well protected.

Yugoslavian adhesion to the pact, these sources added, now has completed the task of sealing up the Balkans against non-axis powers and once and for all wipes out any prospect of formation of an anti-axis bloc in southeastern Europe.

"To Eliminate Greece"

In addition, it was predicted that "aid events soon will eliminate Greece as a disturbing factor" and that Turkey soon will be doing some "heavy thinking."

The decks now have been cleared for Berlin's reception of Japanese Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka, who left Moscow last night after conferring with Josef Stalin and Soviet Premier Joseph Stalin.

Matsuoka is scheduled to reach the German capital tomorrow afternoon. His arrival will be followed by four days of tri-partite conversations during which the United States will be the "chief topic," according to German circles.

According to informed quarters Yugoslavia's action in signing the pact overshadowed in importance all previous developments in the Balkans.

They also stated that Turkey's new agreement with Russia is satisfactory to Germany.

"On our side," said a German spokesman, "we have an exceptionally clear conscience."

These same quarters also stressed that Matsuoka's conference in Moscow probably would "bring up to date" Russia's attitude toward the axis alliance, particularly with relation to the far east and the United States.

While Germany and Italy gave up the right to transport troops across Yugoslavian territory, the new agreement will give them the right to move war materials and hospital trains through Yugoslavia.

Under its terms Yugoslavia will henceforth subscribe to and cooperate with the German-Italian project for a "new order" in Europe.

Hitler reached Vienna shortly after Cvetovic and Cincar-Marcovic arrived by special train.

TURKEY TO GET AID OF SOVIET IF NAZIS ATTACK

ment coincided with Turkish press assertions that this country may be obliged to join Britain in war against the Reich at any moment.

The new pact pointedly buttressed a 15-year-old Moscow-Ankara friendship treaty and shed new light on Russia's attitude toward German military occupation of Bulgaria and enlistment of Yugoslavia into the Axis line-up.

The announcement of the new agreement said in part:

"Should Turkey become the object of aggression and be led to war in defense of her territory, Turkey may count on the understanding of the U. S. S. R."

The Turkish government in its turn expressed its sincere thanks to the Soviet government for this declaration and informed the Soviet government that should the U. S. S. R. find itself in a similar position, it may reckon with the entire understanding and neutrality of Turkey.

BRITISH SEE BALKANS AS LOCATION OF CLASH

Circles linked the Berlin trip of Japanese Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka with plans for an "aggressive axis bloc" extending from the North sea to the Pacific.

Instrumental in preliminary conversations between Japan and Russia, Germany is now using Japan to cement closer Russo-German relations, it was said. This Hitler considers indispensable for success of his plans in Europe.

Soviet Subs In Greek Waters

From a usually authentic quarter came reports that Soviet submarines have left the Black sea for Greek waters and that Soviet submarines for some time have been operating alongside Nazi U-boats in the south Atlantic. The red submarines were said to carry German navigators and specialists as well as their own crews.

As regards the far east, Japan thus far has rejected German demands for immediate action in the Pacific, it was said.

Japan was described as willing to grant certain concessions to Soviet Russia to end long-standing tension if the U. S. S. R. reciprocates. Stalin, however, thus far has flatly refused to discuss cessation of Soviet aid to China.

SCOUTS ARE HOMEMAERS

Conservative people looked askance at the first Girl Scout troops, fearing a cult of tomboyism. Girl Scout records show, however, that since the movement was founded in 1912, homemaking activities, including cooking, sewing, and child care, are the most popular of Girl Scout activities. In 1940, more than 100,000 merit badges for proficiency in homemaking were awarded.

FOREIGN POLICY OF PRESIDENT GIVEN SUPPORT

tion from congress. Opposition to British aid has become virtually extinct in Capitol Hill.

Some enthusiastic interventionists feel that this congress, if asked to do so tomorrow, would even go so far as to authorize U. S. naval convoys of merchandise to Britain. Others, including the anti-war forecast of a bitter controversy over the convey issue when and if it is raised. At the moment, there is no sign that Mr. Roosevelt contemplates conveying shipments to Britain. It is apparently a question to be answered by time and the outcome of the German blockade of the British Isle.

Sentiment Changes.

On the actual question of American aid to Britain, there has been a metamorphosis of opinion in congress. When the lease-lend bill was first proposed, there was only a corporal's guard really in favor of it. Tremendous administration pressure was exerted to work up a 260 to 165 majority in the house.

Passage of the bill by the house proved a turning point. In the senate, it was approved 60 to 31, when opponents abandoned a threatened filibuster and submitted to the judgment of the majority. The bill then went back to the house, where senate amendments were okayed by a 317 to 71 majority. This disclosed that British aid was gaining sentiment in the house.

The lease-lend bill carried authorization without actual appropriations. A further test of the issue came on the $7,000,000,000 appropriation bill, largest in the United States peacetime history. The money bill passed the house by a 336 to 55 majority—as the British aid forces gained again. And in the senate, the vote was 67 to 9, with many senators, who opposed the lease-lend bill, voting for the appropriations.

Huge Appropriations.

On national defense, the sentiment is even more overwhelming and more united. In eight recent days, the house has voted $14,520,396,218 in appropriations for rearmament. This total included the $7,000,000,000 for British aid and $3,448,585,144 for naval expansion. The highlight came, however, when the house voted 327 to 0 to pass a $4,073,810,074 appropriation for army and navy equipment.

Both the navy bill and the army-navy equipment measure have yet to meet senate approval, but there is a possibility both will get unanimous endorsement in the upper chamber. Opposition thus far has been devoted to details and not to the policies represented by the huge appropriations.

It is as though congress has looked back through the years and adopted Stephen Decatur's toast. It was in 1816 at Norfolk Va., that Commodore Decatur raised his glass and enounced:

"Our country. In her intercourse with foreign nations may she always be in the right; but our country, right or wrong."

GROWIN UNREST IN YUGOSLAVIA

complicated unconfirmed reports of clashes between Yugoslavian and German troops along the Bulgarian frontier. These reports increased tension in Belgrade.

The leaflets read:

"Yugoslavs in the past have been a heroic, fighting people who have never surrendered to an enemy. But now they are yielding to Germany."

"Germany certainly will demand passage of her troops through Yugoslavian territory."

"The weak Yugoslavian government will be unable to refuse these demands and the independence of Yugoslavia will be endangered."

"National harmony and energy must be preserved for the dangerous days which are coming."

No details of the reported border clashes were received, beyond the statement that they were supposed to have occurred yesterday afternoon.

Fears, openly expressed in certain quarters, that German troops may pour into Yugoslavia now that the pact has been signed, produced an explosive situation.

Many Yugoslavians—particularly Serbians—have expressed bitter opposition to the pact during the past few days.

ly honest and thoroughly non-political," administration of the board, Dykstra opened the first meeting of the board with a warning to both labor and management that the national defense program "requires each of us to subordinate a purely private or personal interest to the good of the country."

"This is a time of world crisis," he said. "If the United States is to be an arsenal for democracy there must be an uninterrupted flow of production from mine, mill and factory. No effort toward such an objective can be too great. It must not be that such effort will be too small."

"This board will endeavor to deal properly with every situation which confronts it. In our democracy public opinion is of decisive importance. We hope that the public will rally behind the principle upon which this board will carry on—namely that the public welfare today requires each of us to subordinate a purely private or personal interest to the good of the country and its accepted public policy."

Out of total annual deaths of 1,387,897 reported by the Census Bureau, 360,634 were from diseases of the heart.

TWO ARE SLAIN BY ASSASSINS

Prime Steak House in Warren's flats district, cowed a half dozen customers in the cafe and backing out fled to a coupe that presently sped away, leaving no crew.

One Slayer Identified

Pittsburgh, March 25.—One of the two men sought in a double-slaying at Warren, O., last night was identified today from Bertillon photographs as a Pittsburgh underworld character, county detectives said today.

A bartender and a waiter from the steakhouse where the slaying occurred accompanied Warren Police Captain George Salen to Pittsburgh and said a picture of a Pittsburgh shoplifter resembled one of the killers.

The gunmen killed James Munser, 52, and his business partner, Felix Montrino, 29.

County detectives refused to name either the suspect or his accusers. Salen returned to Warren with the two witnesses, saying he would return later in the day with whiskey and beer glasses said to have been handled by the slayers in the hope that fingerprints would verify identification.

Nearly 465 million pounds of sugar are required annually in the manufacture of soft drinks, says the census.

Hints On Etiquette

The very best way to win friends, young man or woman, is to act when with people that they feel you are interested in them. They may not belong in your particular set; they may have appearance, manners and customs that differ from those to which you have been accustomed. But they are people, and interesting in their way. To be friendly and interested is one way to broaden yourself and also to help them. And incidentally it is the best of good manners.

England Ate More Meat Than Reich In 1940

(International News Service) WASHINGTON — England ate more meat than Germany in 1940. Otherwise their rationing systems are about the same, the Department of Agriculture has reported.

Fats, sugars and meals are rationed in both countries. Bread, milk and cheese are rationed in Germany, but not in the United Kingdom. Egg consumption is restricted in Germany, but less so in the United Kingdom. Food consumption in the British Isles was up to prewar standards most of 1940, but in Germany eating of fats, meats, eggs and fruits has been restricted for several years.

According to the report, the United Kingdom imports about two-thirds of its total food and feed requirements. These imported products are the ones rationed when necessary. Production of farm goods at home has been emphasized. However, British officials admit that such production cannot possibly offset the reductions in imports resulting from the German counter-blockade.

With all its defects and limitations, the British rationing of essential commodities is sound under the conditions which the United Kingdom faces, the agriculture

The Flying Cadets Have Language Of Their Own In Air

(International News Service) RANDOLPH FIELD, Texas, Mar. 25.—So I slapped the coal to that lead and zinc mine and reefed back at 3 g's, but it blubbered out in a spit curl like a box car with a built in headwind.

Those words may sound as if someone were out of his mind, but no—they are regular "cadet language," or words which flying cadets put together at Randolph Field, Tex., while describing their experiences in the skyways.

A student pilot, one of nearly 900 receiving basic flight training at the "West Point of the Air," appeared surprised when asked to explain this statement. He found it hard to avoid the flying terms but boiled it down to this:

Deciphering The Language. The cadet was doing acrobatics. When he "slapped the coal to that lead and zinc mine," he meant he opened the throttle. "Reefed back" in plain English means to pull back on the "stick," which causes the nose of the craft to point upward or downward.

By "3 g's" he judged the pressure to be three times the apparent weight of the plane.

Remember the feeling when a fast descending elevator halts? Well, he felt that way at "3 g's" only worse.

The plane "blubbered out in a spit curl" is another way of saying that he went into a side slip before he reached the peak of the maneuver. "A built in headwind" is flying cadet "slanguage" meaning a slow, cumbersome plane.

To Present Cantata In Trinity Church Wednesday Evening

Senior Choir To Sing "The Crucifixion"; Lend-Lease
Movie To Be Shown

Wednesday evening in Trinity church, at the corner of North Mill and East Falls streets, at 8 o'clock, the senior choir under the direction of Miss Isabel T. Johnson, who will be at the organ console, will render the Lenten cantata, "The Crucifixion," by Sir John Stainer. As an experiment and to bring variety into the program, two choruses from "Olivet to Calvary," by J. H. Maunders, will be sung also. This is part of the Lenten devotion of the parish and is designed through the beautiful art of music to bring people nearer to the great Christian realities wrought by the Son of God on the Cross. The spiritual perception and the dramatic music of the cantata will be preceded by a short service and followed by the taking of the offering with closing prayers and benediction. The pastor, the Rev. Philip C. Pearson, will officiate. Soloists are: Miss Nellie Ingram, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley M. Arnold, Franklin Rice and C. H. Smyth; the quartet, Miss Nellie Ingram, soprano, Miss Kathryn Bittner, contralto, Dudley Arnold, tenor, and William B. Howe, bass. After the service, the congregation will be shown five reels of talking pictures in the Guild Room under the auspices of the Laymen's League. These movie reels have been received just recently and show how and what is manufactured in this country under the terms of the Lend-Lease Law (recently passed by the Congress of the United States and signed by President Roosevelt) gets to England by means of the convoy system.

Each year, the Girl Scouts conduct a cookie sale, which is the one outside activity of this nature sponsored by the Girl Scout Council of New Castle to balance its budget. This makes up the difference between the amount received from the Community Chest and the amount needed to carry on the work of the organization in New Castle.

Five hundred girls are taking part in this activity this week. In this, scout officials say, they are not competing with local merchants, because this cookie is made only for the Girl Scouts and can be sold by no others. It is a cookie made especially for them by one of the large manufacturers of the country, and brings a sizeable return to the organization, in that there is no overhead expense involved in the sale.

Choral Festival At Beaver Falls

The second annual choral festival of the Western Pennsylvania Liberal Arts colleges was held Saturday evening, March 22, in the Beaver Falls high school auditorium, and the choirs of eight colleges participated in the program.

As the concluding feature of the program, Professor Karl V. Gilbert of Geneva College, directed the combined chorus of 400 voices in several selected numbers.

Schools represented were: Thiel, Seton Hill, Washington and Jefferson, Pennsylvania College For Women, Westminster, Mount Mercy, Grove City and Geneva.

Girl Scout Cookie Sale Being Conducted This Week

New Castle Girl Scouts officially inaugurated their annual cookie sale last week, when Mayor Charles B. Mayne purchased the first box of cookies sold in the city from Isabel Braham, daughter of Judge and Mrs. W. Walter Braham of Hazel-croft avenue, as shown above, and every day since then the girls in green have been active in soliciting orders from their friends and neighbors, which is expected to result in the greatest number of boxes yet sold here.

The money secured from the sale this year will help to pay the salary of the new field director, Miss Margaret Ziminski, who has been added to the staff here this year. The committee in charge of this year's sale is composed of Miss Martha Bigley, chairman, Mrs. Paul Butz, treasurer, Mrs. George Ward and Mrs. Edward Livoni. They ask the cooperation of the citizens of New Castle in this annual sale.

The committee announces that the cookie which is being sold this year is a little different variety than those sold in the past and comes in a little treasure chest box, with recipes printed thereon giving different uses for the cookie. It comes in two flavors, chocolate and vanilla, and it is believed, is the best cookie that has yet been sold by the girls.

Cookie headquarters will be established at 14 North Mill street, which will be open all day Saturday, March 29, and from whence a small army of girls in uniform will scatter forth abroad the city, making delivery on the orders they have taken during the week. It is expected that 5,000 pounds of cookies will make their way into the homes of local citizens through this medium.

Davies Asked To Take Defense Post

Will Accept Position As Local Representative On Defense Training

Harry H. Davies, member of Local Board No. 2, Public Assistance Building stated today that he had been invited by the National Advisory Board on Defense Training to accept the post of representative of the board for the local district and plans to accept.

In this position, he will assist in the plans of developing the best system for National Defense Training, as it applies to the local district.

Mr. Davies has already found, in connection with his work on the draft board here, that many men who are really vitally needed in defense work, have been elected and accepted for service in the army, and it will be his duty to see that too much of this does not occur.

The national board, is headed by Sidney Hillman, C. S. Coler, and General Dooley.

TRUCK TAKES FIRE IN WELDING SHOP

Central firemen were called to Conn's Welding Shop, on South Croton avenue, at 1:10 o'clock Monday afternoon, where sparks from a welder's torch set fire to a truck owned by Fred Gatto, of New Gallie, and gasoline and oil on the floor of the shop. Damage of around $100 resulted from the blaze which was extinguished with fire foam.

THOUSANDS OF WORKERS DEFY STRIKE ORDER

Workmen Return To McCormick Plant Despite C. I. O.
Strike Orders

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, March 25.—One thousand and policemen surrounded the McCormick works of the International Harvester Company in Chicago today as for the second day thousands of AFL workers defied a CIO strike and went to their jobs in the plant.

Despite the huge concentration of police—representing a sixth of the city's uniformed force—several fist fights broke out among rival unionists near the plant, and a worker's automobile was set afire. Ten men were arrested, one of them charged with attacking a policeman with a screw driver.

As workers entered the plant today, an estimated 7,000 CIO sympathizers stood across the street, jeering and boozing.

In contrast to yesterday, when the plant was reopened after having been closed since Feb. 28 by a strike called by the CIO Farm Equipment workers organizing committee, those entering the plant today did so singly, or in small groups. Yesterday more than 3,000 AFL unionists marched in a body through the main gate of the factory.

The exceptionally large police force apparently was in answer to a statement last night by Milton Burns, a FEWOC spokesman, that "not a single worker will set foot in the plant Tuesday morning."

Spokesmen for the AFL, which recently formed a new industrial union to represent farm equipment workers, charged the CIO strike was engineered illegally by a minority of employees at the McCormick works. The CIO ordered the walkout demanding wage increases, elimination of piece work, and recognition.

The youthful legislator said he will formally toss his hat in the gubernatorial ring before the 1941 legislative session passes into history, unless he gets bi-partisan support for the plan. He is busy now laying the groundwork for a third party.

Haluska To Run On Pension Plan

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, March 25.—State Sen. John J. Haluska, Cambria Democrat, announced today he will be the gubernatorial candidate in 1942 of a third party composed largely of elderly Pennsylvanians who favor his $60-at-60 pension plan.

There is one filling station in the U. S. to each 128 motor vehicle registrations, according to the census.

Mrs. R. W. Lamoree, Mrs. C. A. Burkart, Mrs. W. R. Allen and Mrs. Ralph Campbell, all members of the Lawrence County Garden club, have returned from New York City, where they attended the International Flower Show, held in Grand Central Palace.

The show featured Pan American gardening and covered a display space equal to four acres. The show was held from March 17 to 22, and in addition to flowers, vegetables played an important part in the displays.

The two winning displays were timely, inasmuch as they used the current war for a theme, and one of them contained vegetables recommended for war-time planting.

PENNSYLVANIA POWER COMPANY

Back-To-The-Country Move In State Is Not Back-To-The-Land Move

(International News Service)
STATE COLLEGE, March 25.—A "back-to-the-country" movement of population seems definitely under way in Pennsylvania, but it is not exactly a trek "back to the land," H. R. Cottam, rural sociologist of Pennsylvania State college, commented in reviewing preliminary reports of the 1940 census. More people leaving the big cities between 1930 and 1940 appear to have settled in small towns than actually became farmers.

This shift in population may have been partly a reflection of the close business conditions which prevailed during the decade. Current industrial activity stimulated by the defense program may bring a temporary reversal from the trend. The population of the state as a whole increased only 2.8 per cent. In the past 10 years in comparison with 10.5 for the 1920-30 period.

Will Have Leads In School Play

Polly Butz And Fred Thompson
Head Cast For
"Swing Fever"

Polly Butz Fred Thompson

The leading roles in the coming senior high school comedy, "Swing Fever", are to be played by Polly Butz and Fred Thompson. Neither student is without experience in high school dramas. They both appeared successfully in last fall's performance of "Janey's One-Track Mind". Polly Butz had the title role in that highly diverting husband-hunt of the determined Janey. Fred Thompson was a member of the younger set who formed the animated background for Janey's purposeful activities.

In "Swing Fever" Fred has the leading part as Alexander Norris, a youth of seventeen with a mania for swing-dancing. The script of the play gives young Thompson an opportunity to do some fancy numbers along this line as part of the action. The misunderstanding and disapproval of a family whose ambitions for him are not terpsichorean but academic, furnishes the material for a good deal of hilarious comedy. His life is complicated still further by an infatuation at long range with Penny Palmer, a swing-dancing motion picture star. As Penny Palmer Polly Butz plays opposite young Thompson and at the appropriate time they give an exhibition of ball-room grace and rhythm that is the last word in dancing.

Both young people are prominent in the June graduating class and in the many activities of the senior high school. Polly Butz is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Butz of Lincoln avenue. Fred Thompson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Thompson of East Madison avenue.

Larger Missiles Will Be Dropped On Berlin Soon

Attacks On Berlin To Be Stepped Up By British Bombers

By JAMES E. BROWN
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

LONDON, March 25.—Some of the heaviest bombs in Britain's arsenal were dropped on Berlin during Sunday night, but even larger missiles will be used in the future, it was said in London tonight.

More than 10,000 incendiary bombs in addition to heavy high explosives, were dropped, it was said. Several Polish air crews, some of whom doubtless had fought to save Warsaw from the Luftwaffe at the outbreak of hostilities, participated in the Berlin raid.

The attacks on Berlin will be stepped up, it was said. But public clamor for unrestricted attacks on German cities and towns will not divert the Royal Air Force from its policy of attacking factories and strategic centers.

GOOD HEALTH CAN BE HAD

Don't Take Drastic Drugs

Your Kidneys contain millions of tiny tubes or filters which may be endangered by neglect or drastic irritating drugs. Be careful. If functional disorders of the Kidneys or Bladder make you suffer from Getting Up Night, Nervousness, Leg Pains, Circles Under Eyes, Dizziness, Backache, Swollen Joints, Excess Acidity, or Burning Passages, don't rely on ordinary medicines. Fight such troubles with World's Tonic. This famous old medicine starts working in a few hours. No matter how much money you have spent or how many kinds of medicines you have tried without results, don't give up hope. Consider the honest and grateful expressions of relief from thousands of users, many of them living right here in town as your very neighbors. Talk to some of them. There must be reasons for all the good will this famous medicine, with its roots, and herbs and valuable alkalies, is creating daily. Get World's Tonic at Eckerd's, Pateley's and all other progressive Drug Stores. (J 3) list on Monday morning for the purpose of getting the list of cases that will be tried in the April term, in shape.

The April term this year will likely last two weeks, the list being heavy. Every attorney who has a civil case ready for trial just now wants to get it into the April term as there will be no term of civil court again until October.

Court room number two is an interesting sight this week. Naturalization court is under way and the picture is one typical only to the United States of America. Men and women from a dozen or more nations submitting themselves to the preliminary examination for the right to be called a citizen of this nation.

Listening to the birth places of the applicant is a liberal education in geography. Danzig, Lemberg, Milan, Naples, villages in Russia, in Poland, in Yugoslavia, Italy, Germany. Now and then an applicant is stumped as to the nation from which he came. One such turned up Monday. He was born in a city along the Adriatic, then a part of Austria-Hungary. He first gave Austria as his birth place but Austria is now a part of Germany. Then he decided the nation was Yugoslavia which was the right answer. Yugoslavia consists of what was formerly Serbia, Croatia and Slovenia.

Marriage licenses are produced by women applicants, written in foreign languages. Occasionally a woman applicant becomes frightened at the examination and her mind goes blank. The examiner insists that she stand aside for the next class.

Over 500 are in the present class and Examiners William McDougall, Herman Williams, Harry Gould and Oscar Berman are kept busy running the applicants through their examination.

Senator Walker Seeks Action On Re-apportionment

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, March 25.—Senator John M. Walker, (R), Allegheny, accused the general assembly of ignoring "for purely political reasons," the reapportionment at this session of the congressional, senatorial and legislative districts. Senator Walker has told his colleagues that he "will oppose any effort to adjourn the legislature before redistricting bills have been passed."

Congressional, senatorial and legislative districts, as prescribed in the state constitution, must be reapportioned on the basis of the 1940 census. Special committees have been named in both houses to carry out the constitutional mandate.

On the basis of the last census return Pennsylvania loses one Congressional district and unless the general assembly takes steps to re-apportion the 32 districts into 33, all congressmen will be elected at-large. "We ought to be working on the redistricting job now," Senator Walker said. "If the work is left until the latter days of the session we might make mistakes like the Democrats did in the session of 1937 and which caused the courts to rule it illegal." The Democrats reapportioned the senatorial and legislative districts in 1937 but the higher courts ruled it illegal.

Nursing Students' Society Formed In New Castle Hospital

Committees And Chairmen Have Been Appointed By Newly Formed Society At Hospital

Nursing students of New Castle Hospital School of Nursing have organized a students' society, the objectives of which are not yet clearly stated, but in general they are to develop and maintain those characteristics of a professional, spiritual, social, cultural, moral and academic nature that are so desirable in members of the nursing profession. Activities of the society will provide opportunities for students to practice phases of parliamentary procedure, public speaking, and leadership under the guidance of matured and experienced nurse leaders.

Three standing committees have been appointed: Committee on scholastic activities, committee on spiritual activities and committee on social activities, with Gertrude Crable, Mary Martha Acker and Jean Irene Baustiste as the respective chairmen.

Third, second and first-year students will be represented at any convocation by their elected delegates: Teresa Marie Cosgrove, Gladys Marie Weinschenk and Elizabeth Marie Sokloski.

The student council consists of the officers, directors, class representatives and chairmen of standing committees. Officers are: President, Mary Ellen McPeak; vice president, Dorothy Belle Zimmerman; secretary, Eleanor Brancatini; treasurer, Bina Dee Shoup. Directors are: Martha McConahy, Martha Clark, Virginia Mae Houshine, Jennie Dullin and Mary Lee Bell. Dorothy Silvis, hospital dietitian and chairman of the faculty committee on student welfare is advisor to the student council.

Through the students' society nursing students will have an active part in formulating policies governing the student body. Social, spiritual and scholastic activities will be planned and conducted by the society. Regular meetings will be held each month.

Boltz May Try Hand At Writing

(International News Service) PHILADELPHIA, March 25.—Robert J. Boltz, whose investment business netted him a 20-year-term in Eastern penitentiary, has turned to thoughts of a writing career. Prison authorities said if the 54-year-old prisoner, who stole more than $1,000,000 from his clients, tried his hand at writing, penitentiary rules will permit him to send out manuscripts for publication. The deputy warden, however, will have to approve any article he writes.

Before his conviction and sentence, Boltz was a lawyer, but he wasn't a very successful one, according to his friends. He was starting in the insurance business when detectives nabbed him in Rochester, N. Y., 16 weeks after he fled from Philadelphia.

Naval Vessels To Be Constructed On Great Lakes

United States And Canada Agree To Plan Says State Department

WASHINGTON, March 25.—United States and Canada have agreed to permit the construction of naval vessels on the Great Lakes, the State Department announced Monday.

Both countries also have agreed to permit the use of four-inch naval guns on three American and three Canadian training ships for the purpose of target practice in the Great Lakes area.

Both countries decided that the new agreement shall be considered a new "interpretation" rather than modification of the Rush-Bagot agreement of 1817, which prohibited the construction of naval vessels on the Great Lakes and strictly limited to four the number of small naval training vessels each country might operate on those lakes.

The new agreement provides that naval vessels constructed on the Great Lakes shall be moved out of that area as soon as they are completed. It also stipulates that all armament on the naval vessels constructed in that area must be in a dismantled condition as the ships move through the Great Lakes.

Believe Fruit Trees Have Not Been Injured

It has been reported that many of the fruit trees in this state have been affected by the cold weather. This does not seem to be the case in this district.

On examination of the early blooming trees at Gaston Park

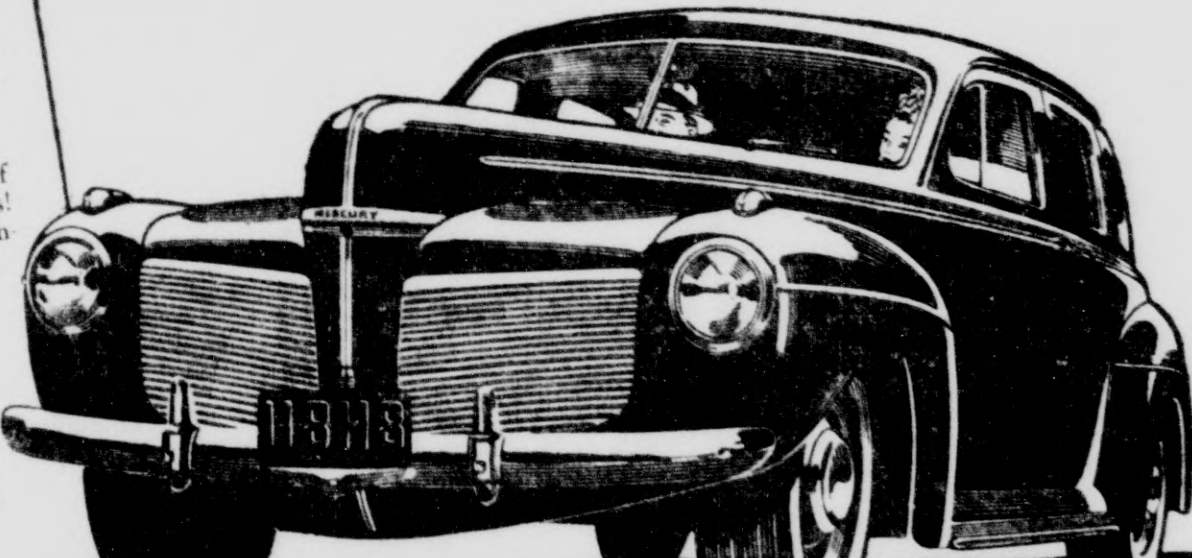

Saturday afternoon, the buds of the dogwood, beech, black birch, willow, forsythia and the soft maple trees, the buds are very tight, and did not show any evidence where the freezing elements and heavy snows had affected them.

It is necessary for the buds to be further advanced, and to have commenced to open, at which time water may get within and become frozen. That is when much damage is done, the flower heart becoming frozen.

A date palm will bear fruit for one or two centuries.

Dr. Dafoe's Column On The Quintuplets And The Care Of Your Children

(Copyright, 1941, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

IT'S JUST SUPERSTITION THAT THERE'S A RULE THAT HOMELY BABIES GROW UP TO BE PRETTY

One of the silliest of all the common superstitions connected with babies is the one to the effect that the homeliest child is the more beautiful it will be when it grows up and vice versa. Persons seem to think this is a rule of nature.

A parent wrote me about it the other day, possibly seeking some consolation, and I thought of a family near me. There are 16 children in it, and they and their parents compose about the homeliest family I have ever seen. I attended the birth of all except one or two of the children and I know that they looked about as pretty as any infants ever are. But as they grew older, they became to look more and more like Mom and Pop, until by the time they were in their teens, they would have won the scarecrow prizes at any masquerade party without entering the contest. I don't say this with any desire to make fun of them, but to report a fact.

These children are homely, I am convinced, because they had the parents they did. Heredity plays a tremendous part in deciding an individual's looks when it grows up. Generally speaking, if parents are healthy and good-looking, their children will be good looking also.

Important, too, in deciding a child's looks are diet and disease. Malnutrition has changed the shape of many a physiognomy. If a child doesn't get the proper diet, the body doesn't develop normally. A lack of calcium affects the bone structure of the face. Bad teeth in childhood affect the shape of the mouth. A dietary deficiency can take the lustre out of the eyes, induce bad eyesight and a squint. There is another factor which can affect looks as much as heredity and diet. This is expression, which springs from the personality. It certainly has the power to transform a homely face into an interesting and therefore attractive one. And at the same time, its lack can and often does make a beautiful face and figure seem very ordinary.

The point to all this is that parents have a tremendous lot to do with their children's looks before and after birth. They can offset heredity's adverse effects to a large extent by seeing that they get proper food when they are growing, by making sure that their home life is happy and that they are not spoiled by too much attention, so that a healthy personality is produced. If they have the latter, you needn't worry about their looks.

The auto swerved into a tree. Miss Hall suffered three broken ribs. Abby hurried her to emergency hospital but, wishing to keep his romance private, insisted they had been struck by a hit-run driver. He volunteered various names and addresses—all false as police discovered after considerable dashing about.

Brought to court to explain how come, Abby smiled wanly and told the story. Municipal Judge Herbert Kaufman decided that a fine of $10 would be about right.

Several Clashes At Bethlehem Steel Plant Strike

Huge Plant Is Being Picketed

Several Strikers Reported Injured As Police Use Tear Gas Today

S. W. O. C. PICKETS SURROUND PLANT

By WATSON HENIMORE
International News Service Staff Correspondent

BETHLEHEM, Pa., March 25.—Several strikers were injured early today when police tossed tear gas bombs in a clash with pickets of the CIO's steel workers' organizing committee at the gates of the Bethlehem Steel company plant.

The fight, which was precipitated when Garrett Roach, former chief of the company's private police force, sought to enter the main gate of the plant in his automobile, climaxed a night marked by several outbreaks of violence.

The skirmish lasted only a few minutes and order was restored after police discharged several tear gas shells. Strike leaders immediately protested the police action to Bethlehem city authorities.

The strikers, according to some of the spectators who milled with several thousand pickets and other onlookers outside the company gates, tried to overturn Roach's car when he drove in the main gate.

Twenty policemen then rushed forward, seeking to keep the car from rolling over. During the height of the melee, one of the policemen pulled out a tear gas pistol and began firing. The strikers immediately fell back.

Two of the men, Raymond Cacas, 21, of Bethlehem, and Frank Horvath, 33, also of Bethlehem, both suffering from gas burns about the eyes, were taken away in a sound truck for treatment. Cacas also sustained a cut across the eye when hit by one of the gas shells. Several others were treated on the scene.

Earlier Clashes
In clashes earlier in the morning, one car was overturned and two others damaged as the union men sought to enforce their walkout which was called yesterday to protest "illegal election" among the plant's employees. The company, working on $1,195,000,000 worth of defense contracts—employs 23,000 men.

No one was injured and there were no arrests as the result of this morning's skirmishes between pickets and workers seeking to enter the plant. CIO leaders estimated that the picket line prevented 2,500 out of the 4,000 night workers from entering the mills. Company officials made no comment on the effectiveness of the walk-out.

Picket reinforcements were ordered out at 5:30 a. m. this morning with instructions from Howard Curtis, district S.W.O.C. supervisor, to encircle the huge mills which sprawl five miles along the Lehigh river valley. The pickets, who will seek to prevent any attempt by day workers to report, will remain on duty until a union rally later today, Curtis said.

Thomas Lambert of the United States conciliation service today planned to contact union leaders and company officials in an effort to resume production in the plant, largest of the Bethlehem chain, which has been operating on a 24-hour a day schedule, turning out armor plate for warships and tanks, airplane cylinders, shells and cannon forgings.

Editor's Note: In Washington, Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins ordered Thomas Finn, commissioner of conciliation, who settled the Bethlehem Steel strike at Lackawanna, N. Y., to proceed immediately to Bethlehem to cooperate with Lambert. Finn, who was in New York City, is expected to arrive in Bethlehem later today.

New Castle Girl To Make Record

First Negro Girl In Nation To Be Graduated As Anesthetist

When Meharry Medical College for Negroes holds its commencement exercises in April in Nashville, Tenn., a new record will be set.

For the first time in medical history, a Negro girl will be graduated as an anesthetist and the girl is a New Castle girl, Katherine Carson Dandridge.

Miss Dandridge was born in Youngstown, O., but has lived in New Castle for many years. She graduated from New Castle high school in the class of 1928 and later completed a four year training course, graduating as a registered nurse. After practicing her profession for some time Miss Dandridge entered Meharry Medical College.

Meharry College is doing an unusual piece of work in the educational field for Negro young men and women. It is rated as a Grade A college and turns out physicians of ability. Never before has a Negro girl been graduated as an anesthetist, either at Meharry or at any other college so far as is known.

Miss Dandridge will thus become the first Negro anesthetist of her race in this country.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Amanda Carson of Youngstown, O., but makes her home with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brown of 803 Harrison street. She spends her vacations in New Castle and was last here for the Christmas vacation in 1940.

Plan To Strike At Malnutrition
Bureau Of Public Health Nursing Plans Campaign In State

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, March 25.—The bureau of public health nursing of the Pennsylvania Department of Health has mapped a state-wide drive to strike at malnutrition, chief cause of undernourished mothers and sickly children.

Alice M. O'Halloran, director of the nursing bureau, announced completion of arrangements for a series of regional meetings at which visiting nurses and representatives of public health and welfare agencies, whose work takes them into the homes of families, may get the latest information on protective food diets.

Medical authorities on nutrition will address the meetings, Miss O'Halloran said. The use of correct foods that contain vitamins essential for maintaining good health and vigor will be stressed by the speakers. Leading reasons for the existence of ailments due to faulty diets such as lack of purchasing power for food, modern methods of manufacture tending to over-refine foods, and such educational factors as poor preparation of food, fixed food habits and poor planning of menus will also be disclosed, it was stated by Miss O'Halloran.

Four meetings, which will be known as nutritional institutes, are scheduled for:

Thursday, March 27 — Lehigh, Northampton and Carbon counties, at Allentown, Sacred Heart hospital; Thursday, April 3 — Indiana, Armstrong and Jefferson counties, at Indiana high school building; Tuesday, April 8 — Mercer, Lawrence and Beaver counties, at New Castle, Y. W. C. A.; Thursday, April 10 — Butler County at Butler, Knights of Columbus building.

HOW TO GET A LOAN TO PAY YOUR DOCTOR BILL

You can get $100 to pay old debts or other expenses if you can repay $6.97 a month for 18 months—No endorsers or guarantors needed—A simple, private way to borrow.

HAVE unusual expenses caught you short of ready cash? Do you need money to pay old bills? If you have a steady job, you can readily borrow $20 to $300—and repay in small monthly installments.

Suppose that you need $100. Find this amount in the first column of the table. Then read across picking out the monthly payment you wish to make. 12 monthly installments of $9.75 each, for instance, will repay a $100 loan in full. The cost, in this case, averages less than 5¢ a day.

You may prefer smaller payments. Only $6.97 a month for 18 months will also repay a $100 loan. The amount you borrow and the time you take to repay it determines the cost. You can borrow $25 for two months, for instance, for only 9¢.

Mrs. John Hough Elected Head Of Girl Scout Council

Mrs. Lawrence Flinner, Mrs.
Robert Balderson Elected
New Members Of Board

ELLWOOD CITY, March 25.—Girl Scout Council met last night in the scout room in the city building with 15 members in attendance. Two new members were welcomed to the organization, Mrs. Lawrence Flinner and Mrs. Robert Balderson.

Reports of the various committees were heard and election of officers for the coming year held. The following new officers were chosen: commissioner, Mrs. John Hough; deputy commissioner, Mrs. Eunice Liebendorfer; secretary, Miss Carrie Hazen; and treasurer, Mrs. Paul Reynolds.

Many new scouting activities were discussed and plans made for a very eventful program in the near future. For the next six Wednesday evenings the scout leaders who are going to camp as counselors will go to Pittsburgh to the Y. M. C. A. training course. This course is given each year by the Pittsburgh Y. M. C. A. and the local girls feel very fortunate to be able to take advantage of such fine training.

Camping was the point of discussion and it is to be hoped that not only the council members but all those who so generously assist in this worthwhile activity from year to year will also be thinking about their part in the program. It would not be possible to have a camp of such high standards were it not for the help given the council by a great many public spirited individuals in the community. It is the outstanding scouting event of the year and the girls look forward for months to that week spent in outdoor activities among friends and schoolmates.

The council expressed their appreciation to Mrs. David Jones, Jr. for her help with dramatics in the troops this year. It is hoped that any one having special skill along some line and wishing to give of their time and talents to such worthwhile activity will get in touch with some member of council.

The council members gave Mrs. Max Groden, retiring commissioner, and Mrs. Liebendorfer, program consultant, a rising vote of thanks for their work during the past year to which Mrs. Groden responded in a very gracious manner.

It was decided to change the time of meeting from evening to afternoon for the next three months. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Walter Balsh on Argonne boulevard April 15 at 2 p. m.

At this time plans will be completed for the council's joint trip to Roanoke, Va., to attend the regional conference to be held there April 21 and 22.

Merchants Meet Monday Night

Number Of Matters Come Before Session—See Industrial Gains

ELLWOOD CITY, March 25.—The Merchants Division of the Chamber held their regular monthly meeting last night in the Chamber rooms.

Final plans for the "Spring Opening" were made with 58 merchants participating.

The Division unanimously agreed to allow any of their employees who wished to attend the three hour Good Friday church service without deduction of pay. All stores with the exception of drug and dairy stores will close on Good Friday evening.

Secretary R. J. Schill informed the merchants that Arthur Leivo of Matthew Leivo and Sons, contractors for Ellwood City's Defense Housing program would be in Ellwood City tomorrow morning at 10.30 o'clock to meet with local building supply and material dealers.

It was unanimously agreed to proceed with plans for an employee picnic again this summer. President Howard Jones will appoint his committee for the affair in the near future.

A special committee consisting of Paul Reynolds, chairman, Ralph Beiner, Gen. Guttmacher, Ralph Heige, Wayne Shiever, S. E. West, Mike Edelman and Bob Shearer was appointed to make a study of Saturday evening business conditions and the advisability of selecting another evening in the week for merchants to remain open instead of Saturday evening.

A general discussion on the industrial gains in the community was held and figures revealed that local industrial payrolls and employment are gaining steadily each month.

Welles Publicly Approves Stand Taken By Russia

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, March 25.—In a virtually unprecedented move, the United States today expressed approval of Soviet Russia's action in assuring Turkey that Russia will remain neutral if the Turkish nation resists a German attack. Acting Secretary of State Sumner Welles told a press conference that in times like the present, it was a matter of satisfaction to this country when a great power like the Soviet Union reaffirms its intention of maintaining what it had described as its comprehensive neutrality in the event a neighboring country might suffer attack.

It was the first time since the outbreak of the European war that an official of the state department has publicly expressed approval of any Soviet move in European political affairs.

It followed quickly in the wake of London reports that Russia is seeking more friendly relations with both Great Britain and the United States as the result of Germany's move in the Balkans.

True to the fighting tradition of the Greek race the St. George Greek basketball team won the New Castle Church Class A championship last night by defeating the Mahoning Methodist team 23 to 20 by staging a fierce last half rally after trailing the first two periods.

Striving to prevent a playoff with Mahoning and the Central Christians, the Greeks led by Jimmy Poleno and "Coke" Othitis saw the Mahonings take the lead at 9 to 8 as the first half closed.

Greeks Stage Rally
Coming back with a strong determination the third period, the Greeks kept on even terms with their opponents, and in the final period turned on the heat to take the lead and never lose it. Mahoning put up a fine battle, but not quite good enough to deny the Hellenic Sons their splendid victory.

Big Jim Poleno the Greeks star guard was the stand-out scorer with eleven of the points, while Nicky Lucas played a fine floor game at forward, although not figuring in the scoring to any extent, but his passing and floor work helped no end, as did the playing of A. Lucas. "Coke" Othitis the big center banged in eight points and played a whole of a game along with his brother "Manny" who coaches the team.

Standish, Stewart and Wilson were the best bets in the Seventh Warders lineup.

In the first game on the night's card the Central Christians defeated the St. Marys team 33 to 31 in a Class A game that would have meant a tie with the Greeks if the latter team had lost to the Mahonings. Scoring standouts were Flegler, Baldwin and Carey.

Second U. P. Wins
The second game on the night's bill found the Second U. P. team defeating the Croton Methodist team 48 to 26. The second team was led by McGary, Jamison and Morrison. Best for Croton was Sheehy and Booth.

The Greek team is being congratulated on every side today and rightfully so, as they are deserving of the championship that is theirs. A big banquet in their honor will be held at the St. George church in the very near future when they will be presented with their trophy cup.

KLINGENSMITH TO BATTLE O'BRIEN

Jarosik, Wargo, Champs; Reale, Baxter, Other Well-knowns Box

Was Regis O'Brien's victory over Marion Klingensmith at Ellwood City a fluke win? The answer will be proved here Monday night when the middleweights battle in the main bout of a fight schedule which will contain eight bouts. The Jefferson A. C. will stage the show.

O'Brien has not appeared here for some time. However, Klingensmith defeated his opponent several weeks ago after which he went to Ellwood City and took on the fast-growing Regis, who, according to reports, peppered Klingensmith with left jabs and handed him a lacing.

Klingensmith requested the Jefferson Athletic club to match the pair for this city. Both are favorites. Neither of them has ever stalled here and indications it may turn out to be one of the most sensational scraps the Arena has contained.

Usually the first week in April is clean-up and paint-up week. No doubt many property-owners will not wait for the arrival of April 1. They should remember that before a fire to burn rubbish is started, a permit should be obtained from the nearest fire station captain.

Gersons To Play Old Furnace In Tourney Tonight

Tourney Idle Since Last Thursday Will Resume With Two Semi-Final Games Tonight

PULASKI RESERVES TO MEET SCORPIONS

Two fine attractions will be staged in the fourth annual city-county basketball tourney tonight at the George Washington high floor. In class A at 7:30 o'clock, the Gersons will battle the Old Furnace Five, and at 8:30 o'clock, in class B, the K. Pulaski Reserves will meet the Scorpions.

Followers of both the Gersons and Old Furnace are predicting victory for their teams. It will be a battle well worth seeing. The Gersons are the favorites to cop the game due to having had more experience in turnery play and having a group of more experienced performers.

Scorpions vs. Pulaski
The Old Furnace team, coached by John Rubels, will fight hard for the right to play the Falcons Saturday for the class A championship. The team is made up of former East Brook high stars. The Gersons have always had tough luck in tournament play outside of the first year, when they captured the championship.

Coach Mike Kulich will have his strongest possible line-up available for the game. The Gersons miss the services of Rags Gennock, out with an injured ankle, and the departure for army service of Johnny "Rookie" Carik, who was high man in the first tourney game that the Gersons played.

The Scorpions and K. Pulaski Reserves having waded through a lot of hot class B competition, will tangle in what should be a fine ball game all the way. Both teams are highly confident of reaching the finals on Saturday night. The winner will play Bessemer on Wednesday night in a semi-final game.

The officials for tonight are: Tim Hutchison and Teddy Wallace.

Long Island U. Are Champions

Team That Defeated Westminster College Wins 56 To 42 Over Ohio U.

PACKED GARDEN AS TOURNEY ENDS

By PAT ROBINSON (International News Service Sports Writer) NEW YORK, March 25.—Basketball ruled as king of sports today in New York.

No less than 18,377 persons, the largest crowd that ever witnessed a game contest in Madison Square Garden, were discussing how Long Island university won the national invitational intercollegiate championship last night and, meanwhile, more than 300 coaches were wrangling over rules of the game in general.

The Long Island quint, by no means a predominant favorite at the outset of the tourney, rallied to the payoff of match of the meet.

Last Half Rally
Trailing 23-25 at halftime, the Blackbirds found the wicker by long range soon in the second chapter and never were headed.

Sol Schwartz, a guard, paced the winners with 19 points, but little Frankie Baumholtz rang up an equal number for the Bob Cats. The outstanding player in the tournament and his teammates, in making 53 foul shots broke one of the meet records.

In a preliminary contest, City College of New York won third place honors by defeating a Seton Hall team that failed to fulfill pre-tourney expectations.

People were packed to the rafters for the final two games of the meet, giving ticket scalpers a Roman holiday.

Fight Veteran Predicts Conn Will Beat Louis

By PAT ROBINSON (International News Service Sports Writer) NEW YORK, March 25.—No one was more pleased over Abe Simon's astonishing if losing, stand against Joe Louis, than was Professor Bill McGarvey, the aged sage of the fight racket.

For that fight was a vindication for the old professor, who was handing champions 20 years before Joe Louis was born. You see he was the lone figure of note in the fight game, outside Simon's own camp, who insisted that Abe would give Louis a lot of trouble.

"Remember," the old boy reminded us today, "I told everybody exactly how that fight would go. (He did but nobody would believe him). And now maybe you young squirts will listen when I tell you that Billy Conn will be the next heavyweight champion, come the night of July 14 when he crawls through the ropes with Louis. Conn can't miss."

"Not only that, but while I'm on the subject let me warn you that either Max Baer or Lou Nova would stand a fair chance of taking Louis as he is today and you will find that Tony Musto is going to give him a few headaches in St. Louis next month."

"Let me show you just how Conn will lick Louis. Yes, yes, I know all about the difference in weight but weight won't be much of a factor in this fight. Speed is what counts and Conn will outspeed him. Look back over Louis' record and you'll find that anybody who had speed enough to keep moving fast to Louis' left caused him trouble. Bob Pastor at times made a monkey out of the champ who has a dead pair of chops although he is chain lightning with his hands."

Punches Better Than Abe
"Now don't tell me Conn can't punch. He can punch hard enough to annoy Louis and he certainly can hit harder than that big muscle-bound Simon."

"Conn will show Louis the most educated left hand in the business and the Irishman will have the champ dizzy trying to find him."

"Conn has only one big drawback. When he's hurt, he has shown a disposition to let his Irish get the best of him and then he was to stand toe to toe and slug with his opponent. That has worked out all right with everybody else, but it would be suicide for Conn to stand and slug with Louis."

"However, I think Conn is too smart to take a chance with Louis. He'll tag and hook Joe with a left and keep moving all the time. You saw what trouble Joe had with Simon and Abe is no dancing master on his feet. He'll have a lot more trouble trying to catch the elusive Conn."

"Mark my words, Conn will bewilder Louis and at the end of the 15th round you are going to hear the announcer shout: 'The winnah and new champion—Billy Conn.'"

LAST NIGHT'S FIGHTS

Phillies Outlook Not Too Promising

Seem Destined To Battle Boston Bees, For Last Place In National League

Loss Of Star Hurlers—Higbe And Mulcahy Will Hurt, Has Group Of Good Rookies

By LAWTON CARVER (International News Service Sports Editor) CHICAGO, March 25.—Billy Conn, who has relinquished his claim to the light-heavyweight crown in favor of a crack at Joe Louis, was to arrive in Chicago today to sign the papers for his April 4 bout in Chicago against Gunnar Barlund, Finnish heavyweight contender.

Formal signing of the contract is scheduled for tomorrow, after which Barlund will head for Stone Lake, Wis., to establish training quarters. Pittsburgh Billy plans to train in a Chicago gym.

MIAMI, Fla., March 25.—Outwardly enthusiastic and seemingly untouched by the ravages of frustration that go with managing one of the worst clubs in the history of the major leagues, Doc Prothro today discussed the Philadelphia Phillies' place in the National League pennant race, and the conclusion apparently was to the effect that he has some green young talent destined to star eventually. Next season? The one certainty is that the club won't be much worse because it can't be. They were eighth again last year.

Of the players brought to camp a few do bear out Prothro's description of them as potential big leaguers. But many of them can't possibly carry more than a few moments in this fast company, and those classified as regulars for this season simply will do the best they can, and that seems to be the point of any piece about the Phillies. Here is where futility reaches its nerthmost depths.

Lost Good Hurler
Prothro discussed his plight today, then in commendable good humor pointed to the loss of pitchers Kirby Higbe who was sold to the Dodgers, and Hugh Mulcahy, drafted into the army as a two-ply incident that would hurt any ball club.

"Last season we had as good pitching as any club in the league," Prothro said. "I rate Higbe and Mulcahy just about even with Deringer and Walters of the Reds. But despite the loss of these two our club has possibilities."

"It is green and we need hitting. However, we have some inexperienced young pitchers who will develop. And we are trying to build as a check of our roster will show. There are only two men with whom I was around when I took over in 1939."

Prothro is devoting a good part of his time to schooling his youngsters, trying with a faint ray of hope to build some of them into major leaguers over night.

Young Pitchers
Pitchers under particular surveillance include Tom Hughes, rated by Prothro as the best young hurler in the International league last season, Frank Hoerst, a strapping left-hander who was the Southeastern league's most valuable last season, but who hasn't yet completely recovered from a broken ankle; Reube Melton, who stand 6 feet 5 and weights 205 and was rated a corner at Columbus; Roy Bruner, recalled from Baltimore; Gene Lambert, up from Pensacola; and Bill Crouch, veteran back from Montreal.

Then, too, there are Vito Tamulis, the Johnstons, Walter Beck, Ike Pearson and John Podkajny, as holdovers—but without a Higbe or Mulcahy in the lot of them.

Prothro is undecided on his catching, but probably will go again with Ben Warren as his workhorse, with Balter Millies and Bill Atwood to help out.

Plenty Of Sluggers
Nick Etten, who hit .321 and drove in 128 runs at Baltimore, appears to be an infield find and will be at first base; rookie Harry Marmie, who may not be able to hit, and the veteran Emmett Mueller are available for second, along with Jim Dillingham, a semi-pro; Bob Bragan will be back at short; and Merrill May at third. The veterans, John Elzo and Joe Marts and Dan Lathwiler, who finished last year with the Phils, have the inside track in the outfield.

It all adds up into another seventh or eighth place finish for the Phils, who have wound up in one or the other of those spots for the last eight years, the cellar being their's for the last three seasons in a row.

Women Bowlers Lose In Valley

The New Castle ladies tenpin team defeated the Moose girls tenpin team of Beaver Falls at the McCoy alleys on Saturday night rolling a total of 2,183 to 2,143. High for the match were Mrs. Ruth Anderson and Mrs. Louise Rafferty each rolling a 479 series. Mrs. Reese with a 485 series was high for the losers.

Monday night the New Castle ladies tenpin team went to Beaver Falls and were defeated by the Club Bowling alley girls team 2,364 to 2,190. High for the match was Mrs. Erickson with 533 series, of three games. Miss Lillian Katilla with a 502 series led the local ladies team in scoring.

KRUK ADVANCES IN ALL-EVENTS

Kock And Day Head Two-Man Division In St. Paul Bowling

(International News Service) ST. PAUL, March 25.—Booster squads returned to the alleys at the American Bowling Congress today after a week-end of pin-powdering by some of the nation's best known kegglers. Established new leaders in two of the four events.

With the booster teams—those with averages of 850 and under—back in action, it was expected the scoring pace would slow somewhat. Two changes among the leaders were effected yesterday by a pair of Gary Ind. steelworkers, Joseph Kruk, 26, and Stephen Turner. The two rolled into fourth place in the couples with 1,236 and Kruk went into second place in the all-events with a total of 1,922.

Elmer Kock and national match champion Ned Day of Milwaukee remained at the top of the two-man division with the 1,307 count they rolled Sunday. In the five-man event the Schmilgins Ice Cream squad of Cincinnati, O., stayed ahead with a score of 2,967. Hilja Kallas of Milwaukee also remained undisturbed in the singles lead with his score of 727, and George Tishock, another Milwaukeean, was safe in the all-events top spot with a 1,961.

Tonight's program will be featured by the appearance of Governor Harold E.

Drives Blazing Truck Into Town

SLIPPERY ROCK, Pa., March 25.—The boy who stood on the burning deck had little on Lloyd Osborn of Wick, near here, who stayed with his blazing automobile until he had steered it more than a half-mile into Slippery Rock and to suitor.

With his wife and two children, Mr. Osborn was coming into town when he noted smoke coming through the floor boards of his car as it topped the Cemetery Hill, east of here. In another moment the flames burst through. Osborn hustled his wife and children from the machine, threw the gears into neutral and coasted toward Slippery Rock.

In the process he suffered severe burns on the left arm, ankle and face but he piloted the car to Mason's service station. Slippery Rock firemen were called but the car was a total loss.

GONZALES TABS GONZALES
SAN ANTONIO, Tex.—San Antonio police sergeant Ernest Gonzales thought he was being "ribbed" when he stopped a motorist for speeding and the man told him his name was Ernest Gonzales. But the motorist produced credentials to show that he was really his name—and incidentally, that he was an automobile racing driver. Even though it might have hurt him inwardly, Sergeant Ernest Gonzales felt obliged to write out a ticket for motorist Ernest Gonzales.

FROM ME TO YOU

By MESEALL

The Jaycees had a very enjoyable party last night when they entertained their ladies at the City Golf course. A delicious dinner was served and interesting pictures concerning the Flying Cadets were shown by the local army officer. Plans were laid for the coming home talent show that will be staged by the Jaycees on April 16 and 17th. This show will be one of the highlights of the early spring season. . . . we have quite a few here in New Castle who have talent. . . . and this is their chance to show what they can do. Watch The News for rehearsal dates.

The New Castle Music Council is very gratified over the first response given the Fourth Annual City-County Basketball tournament, the proceeds of which will go to help defray the expense of entertaining the Forensic and Music League which will come to New Castle on April 18th and 19th. A dance on the 18th will be given for this group and about 2,000 people are expected to attend. There are two good games tonight, the Gerson's playing the Old Furnace and the K. Pulaski's battling the Scorpions. . . . we heartily recommend that you see these splendid contests. . . . we seen a tourney game, try and make it tonight. Remember the games are being played at the George Washington high floor.

Some people get a little to excited and removed their winter undies and this morning they were standing around shaking like jelly in an earthquake. Don't be too sure that cold weather is over. . . . we are bound to have a few cold spells from time to time. . . . take things slowly.

Some people think they can break the laws of decency. . . . they think they can disregard what society thinks about them. . . . they think that what ever they do, that is their business and no one else. So they might think and act. They do things they want to do and no one says a thing. . . . but time and good living have a way of playing the game together and bringing good living have to those who play the game square. It pays to be cautious of the fellow with the silver tongue. . . . for in times of trouble the silver sometimes gets tarnished.

May we suggest that you read the classified ad page now and then.

Stock Market Trend Easier

Most Price Changes Of Day Are Small—Strikes Are New Factor

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, March 25—The stock market eased today, a few losses running to a point or so although most price changes were small.

A block of 24,000 shares of Commonwealth & Southern common was traded at 1/2 unchanged, while United Corp. common slipped to a new low.

Little attention was paid to the ordinary run of business news in view of the growing nervousness over strikes and the war situation.

The strike at its main plant brought a decline of more than a point in Bethlehem Steel, U. S. Steel eased after a higher start. Other steel shares were quiet.

The motors sagged, and coppers showed an easy tone also. Sears Roebuck was steady in the face of an earnings decline last year.

Utilities were inclined to sag. Rails and aviation were mixed.

Describe Slayers Of Warren, O., Men

Teletype Message Received Here Today Says Slayers In 30's

City and state motor police today received from Warren, O., a description of the two slayers of James Munsene, 52, dog track and cafe operator and his wife partner, Felix Munsene, 30.

They were shot to death in the cafe at Warren last night. However, a teletype notice to this effect was not received in this city until this morning.

According to reports the slayers fled in a black coupe south on Route 422 following the dual killing.

The killers were described in the police teletype message as follows:

Number 1 man: age 30 to 35; height, five feet nine inches; weight 165; wore spectacles; wore dark brown coat and dark hat.

Number 2 man: age 30; height, five feet seven inches; wore dark coat, light brown scarf and brown soft hat.

Munsene was known by some New Castle people who, at times, visited his cafe at various times.

Sees South America Endangered By A Victorious Reich

Experts Of Commerce Department Warn Nazis Will Use Trade To Spread Doctrine

By ARTHUR F. HERMANN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, March 25.—Despite all efforts, South American nations will not be able to combat inroads of a victorious Germany, commerce department experts declared today.

Resumption of such trade with Latin America would bring with it increasing sympathy for fascist and extreme leftist doctrines these experts said.

To prevent this potential threat to the western hemisphere, the United States will have to embark on a program of intense economic offensive, including huge loans and subsidies to South American nations, they added.

A special commission has been set up to deal with the problem of industrializing these countries, but at least 10 to 20 years will be required before they will be freed from the necessity of looking to Europe as the "natural" market for their products.

Some Progress Noted

Some progress is being made, but the program is vast—embracing a complete economic and social revolution—that the next two or three years will see these countries "only at the beginning of the road," according to commerce department officials.

The commission's main objective is to stimulate the manufacture of non-competitive goods which the United States formerly obtained from Europe. The experts pointed out that no sound trade can be built up between the United States and South America until these nations can manufacture and sell products to replace Europe's exports.

In line with this program, heads of eight large department stores will shortly go to South America to advise businessmen what they can produce for sale here. The delegation will include top merchants from New York, Cleveland, Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago, Dallas and San Francisco.

Finds Bottle In River With Message

A little town bottle floating in Slippery Rock Creek just above Camp Ellwood, near Ellwood City, attracted the attention of Frank Dietrich, of 1318 East Brook street, this city, Sunday.

Fishing the bottle from the stream, Dietrich found the following message written on a small sheet of paper.

"This bottle was put into Wolf Creek near Slippery Rock, Pa., April 24, 1940. Write to M. J. Black, Rigby, Post Office, New Castle, Pa."

Mustaches And Beards Become Popular Again

War Develops Popularity For "Whiskers" In Great Britain

By FRANK EGGLESTON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, March 25.—Once again it has taken a war to popularize the growing of mustaches and beards.

In fact, so widespread has this growing of "whiskers" become among members of the British forces that hard and fast rulings have had to be made by the services concerned.

The Navy continues to grow its exclusive, ferocious and somewhat "becoming" all-in-beard—in other words, mustache and beard combined—for any other type either more or less, is a serious violation of naval regulations; and having decided to take the plunge, permission must first be obtained from the captain, just as it must be obtained for shaving it off again. A serious business is this beard growing in the Royal Navy.

"No doubt the R. A. F. is expressing a personal view as well as a patriotic one when it strictly bans the growing of a mustache which resembles that of Hitler's."

R. A. F. Ruling

The official R. A. F. ruling on the growing of mustaches states: "Mustaches are permitted in the R. A. F. but they must cover the entire upper lip."

The Army of course still favors the well-groomed mustache—preferably "ginger"—and officers and men still take the growing of these as a very grave and serious affair, not in any circumstances to be taken lightly.

Before the last war it was regarded as something of a crime for a British soldier to shave his upper-lip, but during the 1914-18 World War, an order was issued to the effect that the Army could be clean shaven if it so desired; and towards the end of 1918, the result of this order became plain—mustaches and with respect to the sergeant-major—painfully visible.

There was a brief recurrence when King George V—a short while before his death—nothing that most of the Guards were clean shaven, suggested that they would look far smarter with mustaches.

Immediately there was an outbreak of mustache "cultivation" and one cavalry regiment was ordered to grow them! But this revival died a very natural death shortly afterwards.

DAILY DOZEN

(From the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania)

Tuberculosis increases in war time—even in countries at peace.

More than 4,000 Pennsylvanians die every year of tuberculosis. This is twice as many as are killed in highway accidents.

It costs the lives of 11 men, women and children every day.

It is the chief cause of death among the 15 to 40 age group. It strikes during the most productive years of life.

Tuberculosis is preventable—it does not just happen.

Definitely it is caused by a germ passed from person to person.

Early tuberculosis is often overlooked as it comes stealthily.

A tuberculin test is simple, inexpensive, painless, harmless.

It reveals tuberculous conditions in the body.

Every child or adolescent should have the tuberculin test.
